The data reported by the information system of the treasury institute shall be considered reliable in order to identify the date and time when the payments are credited to the GME's bank account.

4.3.3 Modalities and time limits of settlement on MGP and MI or on netting markets by AU

AU, if proved to be net debtor of GME by the determinations referred to in paragraph 4.2 above, will provide the payment of the amount due through the urgent SEPA Credit Transfer or equivalent, to the treasury Institute by 10:30 of the same working day and with the beneficiary value date on same date, in which GME will settle payments in favor of net creditors Market Participants referred to in paragraph 4.3.4 below.
